

Gifted Education Resources

Curated organizations, support networks, and programs

Inclusion of a link here does not imply endorsement by any individual or organization. These sites are included either because Dr. Mayo is a member of the organization or because its inclusion could be of interest to others.

1 The National Association for Gifted Children

nagc.org

General information, legislative updates, and links to divisions covering research, current trends, and social-emotional needs. A great place to start.

2 Supporting Emotional Needs of the Gifted (SENG)

sengifted.org

Non-profit focused on the affective development of gifted youth. Articles on social and emotional development, grant programs, and staff training opportunities.

3 GRC Gifted Resource Council

giftedresourcecouncil.org

Brings together St. Louis community, school, and parent resources to help bright and talented children achieve their potential. Runs Learning Labs, Academic Cup Challenges, and Summer Academies.

4

SAGE St. Louis Association for Gifted Education

giftedsage.org

Provides information and support for parents, educators, students, psychologists, and others interested in developing the talents of high-potential children.

5

GAM Gifted Association of Missouri

mogam.org

Advocates for gifted education by promoting awareness, supporting funding and programs, sharing resources, and advancing research for gifted learners.

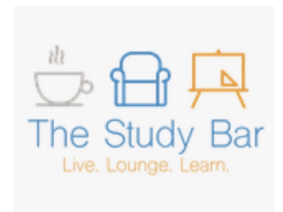

6

The Study Bar

thestudybar.com

An innovative co-working space and STEM hub at the intersection of technology, learning, and real-world experience. Tracks student progress and teaches autonomy and self-advocacy.

7

Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education

dese.mo.gov/quality-schools/gifted-education

Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education resources and programs for gifted students.

8

Mensa

mensa.org

Mensa is the world's largest, oldest and most famous high IQ society — a thriving global community of around 150,000 highly intelligent people.

